

Press Release

Collusion Cartel – I Didn't Mean To Turn You On

---

Collusion Cartel Releases Powerful & Groovy Soulful House Single
'I Didn't Mean To Turn You On'

Listen

Private Soundcloud

Download Artwork

About The Release

Collusion Cartel, comprising of Zeroten & Pinky The Funky Dread, releases a groovy, melodic, and soothing soulful house single 'I Didn't Mean To Turn You On'. Through this release, Collusion Cartel makes a song that will get dancefloors and people dancing. The soulful house single features a perfect combination of bass, melodic elements, and a soothing vocal. 'I Didn't Mean To Turn You On' contains a soothing chord progression with an infectious melody that will have everyone grooving. All together, Collusion Cartel delivers a track that is perfect for the club, party, or any setting in general due to its feel-good elements. 'I Didn't Mean To Turn You On' is the tune for the summer that everyone needs. The vocal delivers a catchy chorus and adds a special touch to the production. The single is released through Pinky Music London.

About Pinky The Funky Dread

Lloyd Pink, better known as Pinky The Funky Dread, is a Reggae/R&B artist hailing from London, England. Working with the likes of China Black, Jazzy B, Roachford, Stevie Wonder, Kicks Like A Mule, Mark Morrison, Rebel MC, Ziggy Marley, Jill Francis, Silva Tella, and many more, Pinky has a voice to remember. With a deep soothing voice, Pinky's style and sound can leave an impact on any listener. Pinky the Funky Dread keeps making waves with his releases and is an artist to watch as he is not stopping anytime soon.

About Zeroten

Naughten Longmore, or better known as Zeroten, is a rising versatile artist. Focusing on house music, Zeroten grabs from other genres such as jazz, soul, funk, R&B, and hip-hop. Working with well-known artists such as Sinclair, Eric Dial, Robin S, Marshall

Jefferson, Pauline Henry, and many more, Zeroten has quickly risen in the music scene. His eclectic style and uplifting sound will grasp the listener in the first listen.

---

Follow Pinky Music London

Facebook

Soundcloud